LOCATION: Coral Caye is a completely privatized island experience. It is an exclusive experience on a two-acre island, located eight miles from Placencia and Turtle Inn (about a 25 min boat ride).

The island appeals to both couples seeking an intimate and completely exclusive retreat and families or friends who may seek a Robinson Crusoe style escape.

A dedicated staff of a butler/caretaker and chef are on the island to prepare meals, housekeeping services, provide snorkeling tips and any day to day service needs. For a more elaborate event or menu requests, additional chefs and massage therapists can be arranged at additional cost.

The island is enjoyed by one party at a time – always an exclusive use experience. Whether booked by a couple or a party of ten, it will be enjoyed exclusively by those guests.

HISTORY: Set in the Caribbean sea with panoramic views of the sunrise, stars and a few smaller cayes, guests feel a million miles away, though they are only 25 minutes away from the shoreline of Placencia, Belize. The island was taken over by the Coppola Family in the Fall of 2016 and feels like an extension of the charming, barefoot elegant experience of Turtle Inn.

DÉCOR:

The coastal decor consists of airy fabrics, open space, seaside-inspired colors, beachy accents, sturdy woods to withstand sandy feet and salty air, and tones to reflect the sea and sky. Two dwellings and a great house are the only buildings on the island and can accommodate from two to ten guests.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Two guest cottages are on the island and a third cottage is enjoyed as a “great house” or gathering space with indoor/outdoor living room feel, bar, board games and an additional daybed and half bathroom, so it too can be utilized as an overnight accommodation.
